

Extended Colour Options for the Library Link ‘Book’ Icon

GREEN shows that the contract heading and linked Library Line Item match exactly. Note: tagged values of data fields in the Line Item that have been flagged for exclusion in the Library – e.g. because they will vary from contract to contract – are not checked for matching.

YELLOW WITH RED DOT shows that both the contract heading and linked Line Item have been updated since the last time they were aligned. The contract heading may need careful updating.

GREY shows that the Line Item linked to the contract heading has been withdrawn from use in the Library. The contract heading may need further consideration.

YELLOW shows that the Library Line Item has been revised since it was last aligned with its linked contract heading. The contract heading may need updating.

RED shows that the contract heading has been edited since it was last aligned with its linked Line Item (which is unchanged).

GREY WITH RED DOT shows that the contract heading has been revised since it was last aligned with the Library, and the linked Line Item has been withdrawn. The contract heading may need careful consideration.

There are six distinctly-coloured versions of the Library Link icon showing different permutations of the relationship between the contract heading in the contract and the Line Item in the Library that it is linked with.

As before, you can hover over a Link icon to see a simple text description of how the current contract heading compares with the current state of its linked Line Item in the library. You can also click on the icon to open a screen showing the differences between the current contract heading and its Library Line Item at the time the two were last synchronised.
