To write a line pending a broker response – a subjectivity – open the contract, select 'Go to Written Lines' from the blue drop-down 'Actions' menu, and click 'Add a written line'.

If your line provides cover whilst provisional, click the 'Holding Cover' button at the top. If not, click 'No Cover Given'. Deadlinefree requirements are entered in the lower box, but please note that if both boxes are used, the deadline applies to all entries.

Fill in the line and stamp details as usual, and then click the '# Subjectivities' button, where '#' is the number of subjectivities currently applied to the line. Generally, '#' will be '0' at this point.

When you are happy with your line and subjectivities, click 'Submit' to send the line to the broker. Further subjectivities can be added later by repeating this process.

To add a subjectivity with a deadline, type the requirement in the top box and click the 'Deadline' field to pick the date when the line expires if not accepted.

When receiving a line from an underwriter that is written with no cover given subject to further requirements, an 'Actions Required' message is shown next to the contract in the dashboard. Note that 'accepted' here means 'received'.

Clicking 'Preview Stamp(s) shows the full stamp along with the specific details of the subjectivity requirements. Click '< Back' to return to the 'Manage Lines' box.

Clicking 'Accept' marks the line as pending. Click the 'Satisfy Subjectivities' button to send information/documents to the underwriter (3.1 overleaf) or 'Close' to return to the contract.

The 'Manage Lines' box shows the basics of the line. Click 'Preview Stamp(s) to see the details, subjectivities included (item 4), and then click 'Accept' to agree to attempt to fulfil the request (item 5), or 'Reject' to cancel the line.

In the contract, the full stamp now appears with subjectivities, marked as 'Pending'. Please note that subjectivities which are written as holding cover are automatically set to pending on receipt.

Requirements are at the top, followed by a box to type or paste text into. Click 'Add Attachments' to select document(s) to include in the response. If the request is deemed not satisfiable, toggle the 'Cannot Satisfy Subjectivity' switch to blue. To send the response, click 'Submit'.

The subjectivity summary box shows the details of each subjectivity that was added to the line as a separate action. The red dot indicates that the broker has not yet replied to this condition. Note that if a subjectivity has a deadline, all items in it must be completed that deadline. Click 'Satisfy' to provide a response.

The response is sent, and the box reverts to the subjectivity summary, now indicating that the underwriter needs to reply. Click 'Previous Responses' to see prior material sent in reply to the subjectivity, or 'Satisfy' again to add a further response. Clicking '< Back' returns to the 'Manage Lines' box.
